

FLS TUTORS

COLLEGE SERVICES

Strategy Package - $799

The college application process doesn't begin senior year. Many components of the application begin as soon as freshman year, including extracurriculars, academic rigor, and relationships with teachers. A clear and personalized timeline with experienced follow-up ensures your student is on track. Students meet one-on-one with one of our dedicated college counselors to map out a timeline to effectively use their time, schedule SAT/ACT exams, plan out extracurricular activities, and course selection, and even cultivate relationships for letters of recommendation.

Students and parents receive:

- An initial meeting with an experienced college counselor
- A personalized timeline of how and when to tackle each step of the application process
- Monthly follow-up emails throughout the application process

College Search Support- $599

With more than 4,000 degree-granting academic institutions in the United States alone, the college search can be daunting. FLS Tutors can help you find the perfect college list, taking into consideration a student's location, possible majors, finances, athletics, academic strength, and your student's unique needs and profile. After a comprehensive review of your student's wants and needs, FLS Tutors not only provides a school list, but also advice in how to narrow that list into the colleges that truly excite your student.

Students and parents receive:

- An initial meeting with an experienced college counselor
- A personalized list of 20-25 schools, including safety, match, and reach schools
- Recommendations for narrowing the search to a feasible application list

Application Guidance -$999

Early decision? Regular decision? Transcripts and test release dates and a variety of application types and deadlines make the college application process more complicated than ever. This complexity can lead many students into missing important deadlines or omitting crucial information in their application. Let FLS Tutors take the stress off of you and ensure that you never miss a deadline.

Students and parents receive:

- An initial meeting with an experienced college counselor
- Deadline management for up to five schools, including standardized test and transcript submission, essays and final application
- Final application review for completion and correctness before submission for each school

Essays

Personal statements can distinguish a student from other candidates who look similar on paper, and in a time when more and more schools are choosing test-optional or test-blind admissions, it's taken an even greater role in the application process. FLS Tutors' highly trained staff can guide you through the Common App essay as well as any supplemental essays from brainstorming and the rough draft to revisions and final polish.

Common/Coalition Essay ($999):

A skilled essay specialist can help your student craft an essay that shines, allowing colleges and universities to see them for their unique and talented selves. Our counselors are experienced writers who understand the unique genre of the college essay, with activities that help highlight your student's character and preserve their voice. Additional/other essays priced per hour.

Students and parents receive:

- One one-hour brainstorming session with an experienced college counselor, including activities to target what matters most to colleges
- One one-hour revision session to transform prewriting and vignettes into a solid rough draft
- One one-hour revision session to enhance structure, voice, and appeal to admissions committees
- Final proofreading and polishing before submission

Premier Package $3500

Ensure student success with the complete college application package. Our skilled college counselors accompany you through every step of the college application process, from finding potential colleges to crafting the personal statement to finalizing and submitting an error-free education. Beyond our listed packages, this also includes additional meeting time for supplemental essays or interview prep.

Students and parents receive:

- An initial meeting with an experienced college counselor
- A personalized timeline for every step of the application process
- A personalized list of 20-25 schools, including safety, match, and reach schools
- Assistance narrowing the search to a feasible application list
- Deadline management for up to five schools, including standardized test and transcript submission, essays and final application

- One one-hour personal statement brainstorming session
- One one-hour revision session to transform prewriting and vignettes into a solid rough draft
- One one-hour revision session to enhance structure, voice, and appeal to admissions committees
- Final application review, including proofreading and polishing of personal statements, for completion and correctness before submission for each school.
- Follow up emails throughout the application process
- Five additional hours of one-on-one meetings for supplemental essays or interview prep.

By the hour:

College and Essay Counseling by Hour - $200-250 This may include FAFSA assistance, interview prep, additional essays, followup meetings

contact@flstutors.com
<https://flstutors.com/>